

Bennett-Hall Staff become Certified Staffing Professionals™

Jan Rudisill, Operations Manager for Bennett-Hall Co., Otescia Johnson, Office Manager for Bennett-Hall Co. in Gastonia, NC, and Chris Paine, Staffing Operations Support Manager for Bennett-Hall, recently received their Certified Staffing Professional designation from the American Staffing Association.

The CSP program offers a professional credential through completion of an in-depth, self-study course, and an exam of labor and employment law principles and ethical practices applicable to the staffing industry.

CSP designation benefits Bennett-Hall's candidates and clients by assuring them that the company's recruiters have the expertise, experience and training necessary to place the right candidate with the right client. To be eligible for CSP designation, candidates must be an employee of a staffing firm that is an active member of or is eligible to be an active member of the ASA, must agree to uphold the ASA Code of Ethics and Good Practices and must pass an exam. The CSP designation also requires continuing education in order for individuals to maintain their certification.

"We are dedicated to best practices in staffing and recruiting so that we can provide the very best service to our clients and candidates," said Cliff Edahl, president of Bennett-Hall Company. "The CSP certification ensures that our recruiters and support staff understand the current industry, and have all of the necessary training. All fulltime recruiters at Bennett-Hall are certified, a claim no other local staffing company can state"
